Winter Well-being Project

New Creative sessions in York

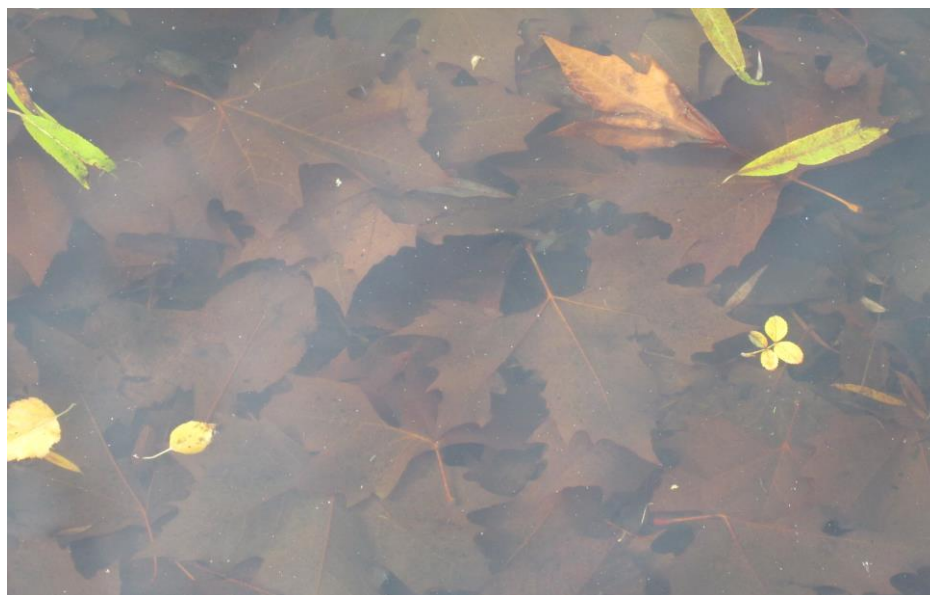

Why not get out of the house and enjoy the daylight hours this Winter. Come and meet new friends and learn new creative skills.

We will be walking around the city centre, finding inspiration, taking photos and sketching then returning to base to create artworks in mixed media. There will also be 2 trips to local cultural venues.

Times: Wednesday afternoons 12.30 to 3.30pm

Dates: 10 sessions starting on 12th November 2014

Where: The Friends Meeting House, Friargate, York
